The P. G. band gives a concert at Emma Square this evening.

The steamers Kinau, Claudine, Iwalani, Kaala, Waialeale and Jas. Makee leave for their respective ports to-morrow.

The bark "E. P. Rithet," brought the following passengers from San Francisco.—Mrs. E. F. Hoffmann and son, Mr. Wood and wife, Miss Wood and 1 Japanese.

The following persons from the other islands arrived in the city yesterday:

From Maui.—Miss K. K. Cornwell, W. H. Cornwell, W. Von Graevemeyer, Miss M. Beckwith, Mrs. S. H. Dowsett, Rev. J. Okabe, Father Matthias, Mow Chin and wife, and 21 on deck.

From Kauai.—Dr. Sharpe, Prof. Libbey, F. S. Sobr, C. Berlowitz, E. J. G. Bryant, H. Hulbert, C. H. Willis, A. Lindsay, Miss Lindsay, Mr. McDonald, J. A. Gonsalves, Mrs. McQueen, Mr. Gandall and son, Miss Gandall, Miss Burgess, Mrs. Kabele, and 41 on deck.

THAT GUARD.

The economical Minister of Finance now proposes to reduce the expenses in the Military Department, by saddling the taxpayers with an expense of $6,535 a month, for the support of an useless and extravagant force under arms. Such a force is perfectly unnecessary and the Finance Minister must also be aware of that fact. It looks very much as if the true reason of the proposed expense is not for a "required military force," but, that those men who were ready to assist by financial promises—and with the backing of the U. S. Forces, to put the present members of this government in control of affairs, have got to be paid. It will not be policy to pay them off and turn them loose, because they may join the Loyalists. So with his usual wisdom and tact, he proposes the military scheme as an economical venture. In all probability it is one of "compulsion" not one of economy.

After a strong opposition against it from those members of the present Government, and those of its supporters who were members of the last Legislature, an appropriation of $50,000 was passed for the support—for two years—of the Queens Guard. The argument used, was that such an appendage was not necessary etc., etc. Yet in face of all their double-faced assertions of that period, these same persons for their own personal benefit are willing to see, aye, and give their sanction to an outrageous expenditure of over $6,000 a month, for—that which may be termed nothing more than less—BRIBERY.

Not even in the worst days of the Monarchy of which so much is said, no, and not even in the ante-Gibson days was such glaring misuses of the taxpayers money indulged in.

Company A.

Members of Company A. of the National Guard entertain their friends to night at the Armory on Palace Walk with a social dance. The popular chief of the Company Captain C. Ziegler has the immediate management of the affair, the success of which is consequently ensured. Those fortunate enough to be included among the guests of the entertainment will enjoy an evening worthy of being remembered.

The Miike Maru.

The Japanese steamer Miike Maru Captain Thompson arrived this morning from Yokohama with another batch of plantation laborers. The steamer is fourteen days out from Yokohama and brings besides four cabin passengers, 1311 males and 331 females who will be distributed on different plantations. Secretary-General Wray Taylor doesn't walk this morning he runs and is very, very numerous indeed.

A sailor from the Philadelphia mistook one of Seely Shaw's mirrors for a baseball-ground and a beer glass for the ball. He succeeded in hitting center. He broke the glass and he is now a very "broke" man.

SERVING TWO FLAGS.

Do the Natives of Hawaii Object to Annexation?

Theodore H. Davies, formerly the British vice-consul in the Hawaiian Islands, and at present the guardian of the amiable Christian princess, Kaiulani, arrived in the city yesterday, on his way to Honolulu, and is staying at the Brevoort House.

He spoke pleasantly of some of the members of the Provisional Government of the islands, but with great regret of the state of affairs which prevails there. The natives, who have lived in the islands, from time immemorial, are bowed in grief over the theft of their kingdom by foreigners and aliens. It is a contest of men against two helpless women.

The Provisional Government, Mr. Davies said, is not American. Its fifteen members include Americans, Englishmen, Irishmen, Germans and one Portuguese. It has no credit in any foreign land, and cannot borrow money in any foreign country on earth.

Some of the advocates of annexation have attacked Queen Liliuokalani in the most infamous manner. These men have not been ashamed to slander a woman in the press. They have called her an "idolatress." She is a sincere Christian woman, and supports twenty girls at a missionary school.

The Provisional Government Mr. Davies said, was afraid to permit the nation to vote on annexation, because the nation would cast an overwhelming majority against it. Mr. Davies was unable to see how the present Government could permanently exist.

The difficulty in dealing with the foreigners in Honolulu, Mr. Davies observed, is that they serve two flags. In talking to the United States they declare that they are Hawaiians. In talking to the Queen and her people, they say that they are Americans.

The Princess Kaiulani is now at school in Germany. Some recent photographs of her, in Mr. Davies's possession, show a very gentle, refined and handsome young lady.—New York Journal.

Emma Square Concert.

5 "Variations on a German Song"	Ochs
6 Schottische—"Sweet Sixteen"	Rollinson
7 Waltz—"The Source"	Waldenfel
8 Polka—"Red and Black"	Coots
"Hawaii Ponoi"

Mr. McDowell has commenced work on his scheme to float the steamer "Miowera."

The Unknown won the baseball game last Saturday, after a well played game. The score stood 7 to 4.

The Japanese from the steamer Miike Maru, will probably be landed this afternoon. They will remain in quarantine until Friday.

What's the matter with that Makiki pumping plant? Either the superintendent or the pump is out of gear—Perhaps both!
